ISTRIA

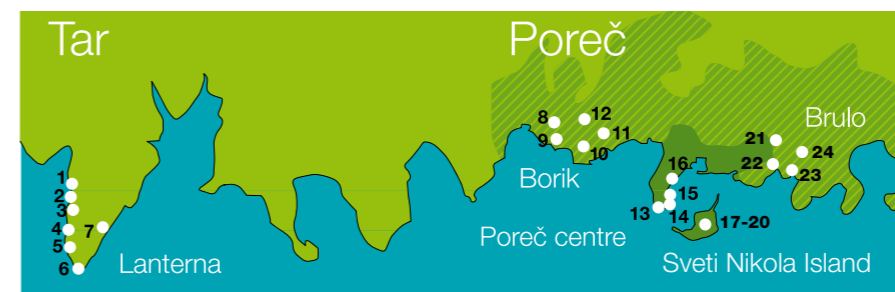

Located on the west coast of the Istrian peninsula, Poreč has long been one of the country's most popular tourist destinations. The terracotta roof tiles and narrow streets of the historic old town in combination with modern infrastructure offer the best of Croatian holiday experiences for all, from beach-goers to sports enthusiasts and culture vultures. Poreč is where Blue Flag beaches offer endless watersports on the aquamarine waters; where the unique flavours of Istrian and Mediterranean cuisine entice visitors to its seaside restaurants and countryside inns and where UNESCO world heritage sites such as the Euphrasian Basilica astound and impress. Visit any time of the year, and you'll find that Poreč provides endless opportunities for relaxing, recreation and discovering the charms of Istria, often referred to as "New Tuscany". Valamar offers a wide range of accommodation both in the historic heart of Poreč and in nearby resort oases.

Top 3 things to do

- 1 Visit the 6th century Euphrasian Basilica, a UNESCO world heritage site
- 2 Discover the hilltop town of Motuvun in Istria's magical interior
- 3 Savour the taste of truffles, a unique Istrian speciality

ISTRIA rabac

Rabac is the most attractive tourist destination on the eastern side of the Istrian peninsula. Known as the 'Pearl of Kvarner' it features a seemingly endless succession of beautiful coves and pristine pebble beaches. There are plenty of opportunities for visitors to explore the natural beauty of Rabac and surroundings. Hiking and bike trails cut through lush pine forests and along coastal paths that border the azure-blue waters of the Adriatic. The town of Rabac has expanded from being a small fishing village into a popular seaside destination.

Perched on a hilltop above Rabac is the medieval town of Labin, a labyrinth of steep cobbled streets and pastelcoloured houses, worthy of a full day's exploration. From May to September festivals and parades enrich visitors experience with rich sights, sounds and tastes. Any time of year, the unique flavours of Istria's famous cuisine and local wines can be savoured in both waterfront restaurants of Rabac bay and the family-run taverns of Istria's interior. Valamar offers a wide selection of seaside hotels and apartments in Rabac, with perfect choice for all preferences.

dubrovnik

Towards the southern tip of Croatia lies the Old Town of Dubrovnik, the priceless jewel of the Dalmatian Coast and a world famous UNESCO World Heritage Site steeped in history and culture. George Bernard Shaw once wrote, 'those who seek paradise on Earth should come to Dubrovnik', due to its profound beauty and historic magic. With its terracotta roof tiles and narrow streets paved in marble, it's a town like no other, whose magic enchants all who step within its towering limestone walls. Restaurants, shops and monuments line the main pedestrian promenade, Stradun, a street studded with archaeological legacies of Dubrovnik's eventful past. Enchanting any time of the year, this 'Pearl of the Adriatic' sparkles when festivals and concerts flood the city in a deluge of colourful sights and sounds. Babin Kuk peninsula is a green seaside oasis where 5 Valamar hotels are located. It offers the visitor a chance to enjoy peace, relaxation and alluring views of the lush Elaphiti Islands, yet just a short drive from the unique magic and buzz of the famous walled town centre.

Krk island

Covered in thick Mediterranean greenery, Croatia's largest holiday island, easily accessible by a bridge, is renowned for its summer events, crystal-clear waters and the immaculate beaches lining the Bay of Kvarner. During July and August the island becomes one big open-air stage as street theatre, food festivals and live concerts add a blaze of colour to its natural beauty, particularly in Krk town which has an appealing combination of medieval walls and modern tourism facilities.

Although watersports such as diving and waterskiing are the most popular activities on Krk, the island also offers many other recreational opportunities such as horse riding and cycling, with dozens of trails criss-crossing the interior and following the contours of the coastline. And for gastronomes, famed Krk delicacies such as barbecued lamb and fresh seafood await in friendly restaurants and taverns. Valamar offers a wide range of superbly located seaside hotels and apartments in Krk and Baška, perfect for a relaxing holiday.

A home away from home

camping adriatic
by Valamar

"Camping Adriatic by Valamar" campsites offer an extensive range of services and are all located in beautiful locations on the coast, surrounded by idyllic Mediterranean nature and the shimmering Adriatic Sea. Not only are they a perfect starting point for excursions, they also offer an opportunity to experience the culinary delights of the region. Accommodation options in our campsites are as unique as the recreational opportunities. Anyone looking for greater comfort will be amazed by our modern mobile homes. Equipped with many features such as air-conditioning, kitchen, bathroom and bedroom they are a real highlight of any holiday. Enjoy your mobile home's large terrace offering breathtaking panoramic views while letting you experience the same comfort you have at home. For a luxury camping experience there is a glamping village in Camping Lanterna that has its own pool for glampers and is situated in a peaceful location few steps from the sea. Our mobile homes and our glamping tents offer a private retreat by the sea, surrounded by nature, beaches and a whole range of possibilities for active holidays. Choose between different mobile home sizes (12 m<sup>2</sup>-38 m<sup>2</sup>), and glamping tents.
